ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL ASPECTS OF LONG-REACH DIVERSITY: INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATION

Salim Al-Ani, Ph.D. & Maria Claudia Franca, Ph.D.

Why?
- SLPS & AUDS need to adapt practices to reflect global perspective
- Increased call for international collaboration & networking of researchers
- Scientific advancement can be accelerated to achieve mutual gains for all affected populations

How?
Pathways
- Exchange students, visiting scholars and study abroad
- Memoranda of understanding & research collaboration
- International service-learning

Partnerships
- Outreach programs & global campaigns
- Comparative studies
- Cross-cultural adaptation & validation of measures

Asha's Strategic Plan
- #6 Increase the diversity of the membership
- #7 Enhance international engagement
- #8 Increase members' cultural competence

Goals
- Develop internationally cooperative projects
- Awareness of existing services and training abroad